Chapter 1 by Skeld

I load my lucky gun and walk towards the tall building. I close my eyes and take a deep breath. I exhale as I open my eyes. My objective, take down as many people as I can before reaching the roof. There my prize awaits.

"I am the light. I am the way." I say loudly. "I am the light-the way."

"You done quoting Deadshot" said my partner.

I give him a sharp look.

We stopped at the entrance. "They'll be expecting us, so we must be ready." I say.

We open the doors and duck immediately, shots flew above our head. I smirk and shoot three rounds. I heard one scream. So far so good. Filled with overconfidence, my partner got up and started to shoot 360. He took some men down, but alas, he was shot.

"This one's for you, my friend." I say and got up to face the enemies. To my surprise, there was only one guy cowering in a corner. I give him a murderous smile and shoot him in the chest.

I walk up to the elevator and wait. Something grabs my attention, Matt was lying near the elevator. I thought I saw him move, but it's probably nothing.

The elevator door opens and I step in. I sing along to the tunes of David Bowie. I see that the

"I didn't cheat.I just played dead.Everyone does that."

"NO!! I WORKED SO HARD FOR THE PROMOTION".

"Relax,Boss.You don't need the promotion,you already own the building.

And afterall,it's just a silly Paintball Gunfight I won.Grow up".he smirks.
